In her last response, applicants' representative (Wendy Choi) requested a telephone call from the Examiner regarding the restriction requirement, if he wished to discuss rejoinder. In a telephone message, the Examiner offered to reconsider the restriction requirement with regard to Groups A, B, and C, if applicants were willing to admit on the record that the all or some of the groups were obvious over each other. In a return telephone message, applicants' representative indicated that the applicants would not admit that the all or some of the groups were obvious over each other.
